

Introduction

I try to include as much information as possible without directly recreating the ballot guide. The information is sourced from the ballotguide, calmatters, ballotpedia, LA Times, voter's edge, and Mercury News.

I have done my best to keep my views out of it.

I started this to help my two aunts. They would ask me to tell them about ballots and candidates, so I made them a guide. Democracy relies on an informed and participatory citizenry, but it's not always easy. This is meant to alleviate some of the burden to make voting easier. Hopefully this guide helps.

If you notice any errors or feel like I've missed something, you can email me at lizmuehlmann@gmail.com.

How to use this guide:

The guide is broken up by office with a description of the office and responsibilities at the start. A list of candidates, their preferred party, their current occupation, notable positions, and whether they agreed to voluntary spending limits.

Helpful Resources:

1. Register to vote (Deadline May 23): <https://registertovote.ca.gov/>
2. Check your registration status: <https://voterstatus.sos.ca.gov/>
3. Access the official voter guide: <https://voterguide.sos.ca.gov/>
4. Early voting & ballot drop off locations: <https://caearlyvoting.sos.ca.gov/>
5. Track your ballot: <https://california.ballottrax.net/voter/>
6. If you are in the Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Orange County area and need help getting to your polling place I will either find you resources or help you get there. I also offer to go with you to vote (and I will bring my two large German Shepherds) if you feel unsafe going to vote alone.

What's on this ballot?
